

We have determined that the Committee received contributions from the DRS Technologies Good Government Fund for the 2010 Primary Election in excess of the contribution limits for that election. Accordingly, we have today refunded the amount of the excessive contribution ($1000). The refund will be disclosed on our next disclosure report.
